RECRUITMENT FRAUD ALERT

Our attention has been drawn to the fraudulent activities of persons posing as recruitment agencies or Nufarm employees. The fraud involves sending people job offers and asking for individuals personal banking details.

We would like to make it clear that Nufarm never requires successful candidates to pay for documentation or administration expenses. If you receive a genuine job offer for a job with Nufarm, whether the offer is made directly by us or through an agency, you will not be required to pay any money towards administration fees. We also recommend that you do not disclose personal or financial details to anyone you do not know.
