17 January, 2011

Second Class Action Proceeding

Earlier this afternoon, applicants represented by Maurice Blackburn served a class action proceeding on Nufarm Limited. The proceeding was filed on 24 December 2010 but was not served on Nufarm Limited until today. The proceeding has been issued in the Federal Court of Australia.

The statement of claim makes various allegations regarding Nufarm Limited's disclosure in respect of its half year result for the period ending 31 January 2010, its full year result for the year ending 31 July 2010, and its expected financial performance in those periods, including its net debt levels and compliance with banking covenants.

The applicants are said to comprise persons who purchased shares in Nufarm Limited between 28 September 2009 and 31 August 2010.

The applicants are seeking unspecified and unquantified damages.

Nufarm Limited denies any and all allegations of wrongdoing, and will defend the proceedings vigorously.
