Nufarm appoints new CFO

Nufarm Limited announced today that Paul Binfield has been appointed Chief Financial Officer.

Paul is currently the Finance Director with Coles Liquor and Hotels, a major division of Wesfarmers Limited. He is a former CFO with Mayne Group and has extensive experience in the publicly listed and private company finance environments in both Australia and the UK.

Nufarm Managing Director and CEO, Doug Rathbone, said Paul's appointment follows an extensive search and strong interest expressed from a large field of quality candidates.

"Paul will bring to Nufarm a very strong set of technical skills and broad experience in senior strategic finance roles. He will make a very valuable contribution as we continue with the task of rebuilding the profitability of the business."
